OFFICE NOTE.

SUBJECT. Maintenance of a fair distribution of subordinate appointments in the Excise department, among different classes of people.

LAST REFERENCE Letter No. 3172 dated 28th November 1900 from the Comptroller, Mysore Govt.

The Excise Commr brought to the notice of Government that in a certain taluk the menial officials known as tree-markers had been selected from a particular caste and ~~had~~ considered that such enlistment was not very favorable for the proper performance of public duty. The Government concurring in the view ~~expressed~~ expressed by the Excise Commr, directed in proc no X 8313-22 / Ex 333 dated 14th

Sl no 1 on file

March 1895 that endeavour should always be made in the distribution of ~~vacancies~~ appointments referred to to maintain a fair proportion of the different classes so as to avoid undue preponderance of any particular class or caste,
With a view to enable the Government that due effect ~~was~~ is given to the above order ~~of Government~~ the Comptroller was requested in the same proc. to submit to Government annually the schedules the Excise Establish ments as they are received by him for scrutiny in the Secretariat The schedules of Establishments for the year 1899-1900 were according received in the secretariat As no separate heading is given in the Schedules showing the particular ~~caste or~~ class or caste to which each official belongs, no accurate checking was possible ~~which only~~ and consequently ~~a rough~~ they (Schedules) were roughly checked and the result of such checking was shown in a statement × submitted to the 2nd Councellor.

× slip placed

~~The following order was passed on it~~. Instructions were solicited as to whether an additional column should be asked to be opened in the schedules to furnish information regarding the class or caste to which the Official belongs, as required ~~by~~ in para 2 of the Government order of 14th March 1894, and ~~on~~ the following order was passed ~~on it~~ on 5th November 1900

Sl no (1)

" please dont increase the work of the department. We have already enough forms."

The Schedules for 1900 have since been received for the marginally noted districts. ~~and~~ they are checked and the ~~re~~ result is shown in the statement herewith submitted. As regards

Establishment schedules of the Excise Commrs ~~Office this~~ Office &c, no information is given regarding the class or caste to which each individual belongs. A draft is therefore submitted ~~this~~ for approval & orders
